The APIS IQ-Software has become one of the leading FMEA tools on the market since 1992, comprising an extremely broad range of functions that you should learn step by step. That is why the courses for beginners on the IQ-Software (TR02/TR03) initially impart only those basic functions that are absolutely necessary to create and maintain a FMEA. It is recommended to use these basic functions for a while to consolidate their handling.

When the basic functions are confirmed, users usually claim more from the IQ-Software: Can we do this and that faster or in a more convenient way, etc.?

This is where the seminar comes in by providing further tips and tricks regarding familiar editors and dialogs and introducing further editors and concepts. Furthermore, we give recommendations regarding typical FMEA working scenarios (e.g. input of a customer complaint). You will thus become an advanced user of the APIS IQ-Software.

The schedule is open for individual problems and questions to a certain extent.

Target group	The seminar is intended for users, who use the basic functions of the IQ-Software and want to take the next step to become advanced users.
Prior knowledge	Knowledge of methodology and experience in FMEA according to VDA and AIAG as well as safe handling of the basic functions of the APIS IQ-Software. Such knowledge is imparted e.g. in the seminar Two-in-One (TR03) .
